

L.A. Schools Announce Graduation Dates, Times

More than 63,000 students—a record number—will be graduated this month from secondary schools, junior colleges, and adult schools within the Los Angeles City School District. The number is nearly 2,000 more than last year, according to Superintendent of Schools Jack P. Crowther. Some 31,961 junior high school students will be promoted to the 10th grade Area junior highs, along with graduation details and speakers, are listed below:

- Andrew Carnegie, June 14, 11:30 a.m. on the Outdoor Stage, Dr. Ralph Richardson, member of the L.A. Board of Education, and Herman Adams, principal, speakers;
- Alexander Fleming, June 14, 10 a.m. in the auditorium, Wendell Noble, public relations for Glendale Federal Savings, speaker;
- Robert E. Peary, June 14, 9:45 a.m., Outside Assembly Area, Kathleen McGuire, principal, speaker;
- Stephen M. White, June 14, 9:30 a.m., Outdoor Assembly Area, student speakers; and
- Wilmington, June 14, 11 a.m., Athletic Field, student speakers.

SECOND and third largest junior high school classes in the city school system are at White Junior High in Torrance, with 676 graduates, and Peary Junior High in Gardena, with 645 graduates. Some 23,905 senior high students from Los Angeles City Schools will be receiving diplomas. Graduation information for those schools in the Torrance area are as follows:

- Phineas Banning, June 14, 5:30 p.m., Athletic Field;
- Carson, June 14, 4 p.m., Athletic Field; and
- Nathaniel Narbonne, June 14, 5 p.m., Athletic Field, Richard Nida, principal, speaker.

Graduation ceremonies at Los Angeles Harbor College will take place June 13, 6 p.m. at the Seahawk Library Quad. Dr. B. Lamar Johnson, UCLA professor of education, will be guest speaker.

Gun-Toting Robber Hits Mini-Market

A man in his 20s wearing a blue jacket and a turquoise T-shirt held up the Stop 'n' Go Market at 3541 Artesia Blvd., Saturday morning to the tune of $300. The sales clerk on duty told the man stepped up to the counter to purchase a bottle of punch and then pulled a .38 caliber chrome revolver. The suspect ordered her to fill a paper sack with the money in the register and then forced her into the rear of the store where he demanded a bank sack containing the receipts of the previous day.
